About me / us: Hello, I am a certified international baccalaureate primary years' teacher with experience of working in English as well as French school curriculum. Also, I have a diploma in banking and economics as well as several years of international corporate banking experience in Geneva. I would be really happy to bring your level of English, Maths, or Economics to the desired level. I strive to make my lessons efficient, relevant to the personal needs of my students, and, most importantly, engaging.
